Twelve years ago, Mr. C.H. Aderholdt, owner of a large plantation named Meadow High School, in the southern part of Johnston County, North Carolina, took us from our parents and promised that we could have our freedom in twelve years if we had worked hard enough to earn it.

The first eight years as workers on the plantation, we had many leaders who worked patiently helping to prepare us for the last four most important years.

With the beginning of the ninth year we floated down the "Swanee River" grabbing the opportunities which came our way, and we began to realize how much fun it really was to be a slave on a southern plantation. As the freshmen of 1950, we were such a large group that we had two advisors, Mr. Thomas Garland and Mr. Worth Braswell.

During the tenth year, which was one big quilting party, we began to realize the responsibilities which go along with earning the freedom for which we were all working - graduation. Mr. Thomas Garland and Mrs. Mafalda Aman were our overseers for the year.

Mr. G.W. Harriett bought the plantation at the beginning of our eleventh year. As the Juniors of 1952 we needed only one leader since so many of our big family had been taken by other people. She was Mrs. Ruby Stewart, who led us through a busy and exciting year. Riding in beautiful carriages and wearing "Golden Slippers", we honored the seniors of 1952 at a banquet, carried out with the truest southern hospitality, at Johnson's Restaurant.

Not until we were seniors did we become hard-working slaves. It was then that we learned an "Old Man River" could never earn his freedom from Meadow without work. Mrs. Ralph Smith, a wonderful lady, taught us that.

Now that the time is up and we have almost earned our freedom, we can hardly believe that twelve years have passed. In the years to come as we dream, "In the Evening by the Moonlight", our dream will be of the days, good or bad, at Meadow High School.

Seated before a television set meditating upon the future of the class of '53, I dial station MHS - but - I cannot recognize my classmates. Why - oh -, because of a unique discovery, (could it be the results of Senior Chemistry) I have seemingly been transported ten years into the future. The program title, "The Most Outstanding Citizens of Johnston County for the year of 1963" flashes upon the screen. The scene is Mercy Hospital, Charlotte, N.C. Mary Ida Godwin is head nurse and Dr. Anthony Godwin head surgeon. Nearby is Lee's funeral home owned and operated by Clark Lee, whose private secretary is Martha Ann Johnson. The picture shifts to New York to the studio of the world famous portrait artist, Robert McLamb, who is now finishing his masterpiece, a picture of his favorite model, Josephine McLamb. Down the street a few blocks is the First Baptist Church which is fortunate to have as its minister, the Reverend Vernon Davis, and Miss Betty Lee as church organist. Near the church stand Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hood (Mrs. Hood the former Margaret Parker) admiring their new home, decorated by the best interior decorator of New York, Maude Boyette. The picture changes to our Capitol and the Republicans are in power again. The President, Graydon Bryan, is having a meeting with two members of his Democratic cabinet, Secretary of State, William Golden Tart, Jr. and the Secretary of Defense, Rayford Adams. Next is a studio in Hollywood, California where Edith Adams and her leading man, Charles Parker, are making their latest movie with Billy Hill as head cameraman. Nearby is Buck Dunn's country club where Llewellyn Jones and Georgia Ray Tart have just stopped playing golf to meet two of their former classmates, Bessie Lou Tart and Martha Barefoot, who are returning from an African missionary journey. Now I see the Naval Base at Norfolk where Captain Alice Marie Langston is talking to SN Pat Langston for flirting with the sailors, one of whom took Myrtle Johnson for his wife. Tonight the world famous "Helldrivers", Billy Thornton and Bobby Utley will perform. After this performance, the All-American Girl's Basketball team with Shirley Wood as main guard will entertain the Waves. Since some of the class decided to settle down near home, the picture becomes more familiar. I now see Gerald Denning, Principal of one of the largest schools in Meadow, N.C. talking to two of his teachers, Emmy Lou McLamb, the home economics teacher, and Rosalie Royals, the shorthand teacher. Not far off is the thriving town of Newton Grove with Raymond Johnson as mayor and Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Barefoot (Mrs. Barefoot, the former Mary Barefoot of Meadow) as two of the town commissioners. The picture dims, but wait, isn't that D.H. Powell, the city dogcatcher, chasing dogs down the street? (Still joking as ever). The picture fades away. I awake from my delightful reverie just in time to don cap and gown for the commencement finals of the Class of '53.

We, the Senior Class of Meadow High School, on this the first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred fifty-three, do leave our Alma Mater.

We, being of sound mind and realizing our impending departure, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the undergraduates-To the Juniors we leave our jar of paste and wallpaper for the stage scenery.

To the sophomores and freshmen, we leave our old Reader's Digests in hopes that they will derive some knowledge from the required 69 book reports.

ARTICLE II

To our teachers, we wish to express our thanks for the interest and leadership they have given us during the past years.

To our principal, Mr. G.W. Harriett, we leave our deepest appreciation for his unfailing efforts in trying to teach us co-operation and the value of putting our school work first.

ARTICLE III

I, Edith Adams, leave my love for two-toned Fords to Joyce Beasley.
I, Rayford Adams, leave my love for teasing the girls to anyone who can get by with it.
I, J. L. Barefoot, leave my ability to "sling the Nasty" to Lee Barefoot.
I, Martha Barefoot, leave my bottle of Peruna to anyone who has the neuralgia.
I, Mary Barefoot, leave my office of class president to any junior worthy of the position.
I, Maude Boyette, leave all my cake and pie recipes to the future Home Ec. girls.
I, Graydon Bryan, leave my long legs to "Shorty" Utley.
I, Vernon Davis, leave my natural talent for acting to J.W. Parker.
I, Gerald Denning, leave my typing techniques to Miss Barnes.
I, Buck Dunn, leave my title "Cutest Boy" to Max Lee.
I, Anthony Godwin, leave my nickname, "Cannon Ball" to Charles Adams.
I, Mary Ida Godwin, leave all my True Romance comic books to Katie Frances Johnson.
I, Billy Hill, will my ability to know what Mrs. Smith is talking about to Pat Hudson, and hope that someday he will get an A-.
I, Billy Hood, leave, and if I leave anything worthwhile, it is to be divided among the girls.
I, Martha Ann Johnson, leave my love for John Wayne movies to Hulda Lee.

I, Myrtle Johnson, leave all my old report cards to the less fortunate knowledge seekers of M.H.S.
I, Raymond Johnson, leave my love for Fords to Eurtiss Wood, a Chevrolet man.
I, Llewellyn Jones, leave all my good history grades to Doris Barefoot.
I, Alice Marie Langston, leave my date book to any girl willing to take up where I left off.
I, Patricia Langston, leave my love for candy, jokes, and boys to Henrietta Hood.
I, Betty Rebecca Lee, bequeath my quiet ways to Renna Lois Wood.
I, Clark Lee, leave a lock of my curly hair to Alice Joyce Peacock---as a memento of the good old days.
I, Emmy Lou McLamb, leave my love for "Broad Slab" to Joyce Adams.
I, Josephine McLamb, leave my title "Best Looking" to Shelba Jean Dunn.
I, Robert McLamb, leave my motto "Live fast, die young, and have a good-looking corpse" to Julius Lee.
I, Charles Parker, leave my ability to slip around, in and out of school to Arbie Lee Wilks.
I, Margaret Parker, leave my Saturday night dates--Benson Style--to Shirley Wheeler.
I, D. H. Powell, leave period--Hurrah! I'm still breathing.
I, Rosalie Royal, leave my quiet smile and courteous ways to Frances Tart.
I, Bessie Lou Tart, leave my French book to anyone deserving such a fate.
I, Georgia Ray Tart, leave my love for good times to Hilda Parker, in hopes that she won't overdo it.
I, Golden Tart, leave my red freckles and dark-rimmed spectacles to Kenny Morris.
I, Billy Thomas Thornton, leave my love of Plymouths to Keith Williams, a Ford lover.
I, Bobby Utley, leave period, taking everything I have with me.
I, Shirley Jean Wood, leave my undying love for basketball to Eleanor Gardner.

Martha Ann Johnson,
Testator

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Jean,
I've enjoyed being in school with you these past years. Hope you had luck next year on the Basketball team.
May you be successful
Alice Joyce Pennal

Jean,
I can honestly say I have enjoyed being a friend (I hope) of yours this year. I will always remember the good times I have had with you. Playing basket ball. One thing I won't ever forget - when I was in the hospital hopping. You all would come to see me and in walked you, Elaine & Charles. I don't think I have ever laughed as much. I hope you a successful future in every thing you do. "Love Ya."
"The right Grade
Can't be forgotten
can it."
Eleanor Gardner

Jean,
It has been a great pleasure knowing you. I think you are a very sweet girl, so good luck & best wishes.
Josephine McLamb

Dear Jean -
It has been a privilege to know someone like you in my years at Meadows. People like you make me sorry I'm leaving. Please stay as sweet as you are - I'll be coming back to see you.
Love -
"Miss Watts"

Hello Dick,
How you feeling this fine foggy day? Dear it has been a real pleasure being in school with you. In your flower garden of memories please let me be a forget-me-not. Lots of luck always
As ever
